

South Oaks-Broadlawn Manor

Presents:

The Annual Carol Giuliani Conference on Disability Awareness

to be held at

The Chapel Conference Center

400 Sunrise Highway

Amityville, New York 11701

May 6, 2009 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM

This conference is FREE! but you must register because space is limited.

Fax: Registration form to 631-608-5707

or call: 631-608-5052

Lunch & Refreshments

CRC and Continuing Education

Certificates

awarded

Schedule of Events

- 8:30 Registration
- 9:00 Opening Remarks
Robert Detor, CEO, The Long Island Home
- 9:15 Drug & Alcohol Prevention Strategies & The Prevention Resource Center
Pamela Mizzi, Project Coordinator, South Oaks Hospital
- 10:00 The Implications of the 2009 ADA Amendment
Andrew Singer, Esq. Tannenbaum, Helpert, Syracuse, and Herschtritt, LLP
- 11:00 Break
- 11:15 Long Island Lightning Wheel Chair Basketball
Mark Drummer, Head Coach & Vocal Point Man
- 12:00 Lunch
- 1:00 Key Components to Addressing the Mental Health of Our Veterans
John Javis, Nassau County Mental Health Association & Gaylene Pandolfo, NYS Office of Mental Health
- 2:00 Break
- 2:15 HOPE Fitness: the FIRST Fitness Center of its kind; created and dedicated to individuals with ALL types of Disabilities and open to the public.
H.L. Greenberg, President, & Loraine McMillan, Executive V. P.
- 2:45 Utilizing Physical Therapy to Address the Needs of Individuals With Physical Limitations
Broadlawn Manor & Affinity Healthcare Physical Therapy Department
Mary Boyle, Director
- 3:45 Evaluation Forms and Closing Remarks
Kristie Golden, PhD, Director, Grants and Research, The Long Island Home